

TEENS

grades 7-12

Teen Summer Reading Program: June 3 - July 12

In a universe of stories, which ones will inspire you this summer?

We have some awesome programs planned, you can attend one thing, everything, or nothing! Sign up online starting May 21.

Signing up is not a commitment—but it has some fringe benefits...

Once you have registered, your name will automatically be entered in our three random drawings. Drawings will be held every two weeks.

Read throughout the summer and post book reviews. Write a couple paragraphs saying what the book is about and why you liked, loved, or hated it.

Read and review 5 books and win a gift card!

Book Café

Surprise gift at
Book Café
(while supplies last)

Gather on two Thursday evenings at the Buena Vista Branch for coffee-house treats and book-talking. Meet people who read, tell them what you're reading, and get some new-to-you recommendations. Meet and chat with an author. There's a universe of stories out there, and you'll find some new ones here.

7 p.m. Thursday, June 6 & Thursday, June 27

Coding for Newbies with Hour of Code

9:30 a.m.
Tuesday, June 11
& Wednesday, June 12
Northwest Branch

Coding for Newbies is a two-morning workshop to show that anybody can learn the basics. If you are curious about coding, but have never programmed anything, this mini-course is for you! We will make and play easy games, and work together to learn the basic building blocks of coding.

Attendance is needed both days.
Space is limited, and sign-ups are required.
Email teenlibrarian@burbankca.gov or call Anarda Williams at 818-238-5625.

HOUR OF CODE

Kahoot! Trivia Night!

7 p.m. Thursday, June 20
Buena Vista Branch

So you think you're an expert in Harry Potter, Star Wars, or mythology?
Come and meet your match!

Bring your phone or tablet to play four Kahoot! quizzes. The winning teams will compete against each other for the Final Contest.
Eat goodies, win buttons and other symbols of your prowess.

Lego Universe

2 p.m. Wednesday, July 10
Burbank Central Library

Meet with Peter Abrahamson and Brandon Griffiths,
LEGO experts and enthusiasts from the LEGO User
Group of Los Angeles (LUGOLA).

They will advise you in designing and building a universe of characters, creatures, and contraptions. No experience is necessary, and all materials are provided—just bring your enthusiasm and creative ideas! At the end of the program, we will put our creations on display inside the glass case in the Central Library lobby.

TEENS

It's a Scavenger Universe

LOCKDOWN!

We will end our Teen Summer Reading Program with an after-hours scavenger hunt. Come dressed as your favorite character from any universe and comb the library, search high and low, and solve the mystery created by the ingenious Teen Advisory Board.

Eat snacks. Win prizes. Everyone in attendance will be entered in a GRAND PRIZE drawing.

6 p.m. Friday, July 12
Buena Vista Branch

FREE DMV Practice Tests

Just like the real thing. More effective than the handbook.
